FIGHT STARTED ON COAL TRUST

ATTORNEY GENERAL FILES DIS-SOLUTION SUIT AGAINST READING CO.

CONTROLS ANTHRACITE

SAYS LAW IS ALL THAT CAN GIVE RELIEF.

MANY INDIVIDUAL DEFENDANTS

Declared Embodied in Reading Holding Company—Does Not Want Pro Rata Distribution.

Philadelphia, Sept. 2.—Attorney General McReynolds' first and most important attack on the "hard-coal trust" was begun here today with the filing of a civil suit for the dissolution of the Reading company's control of coal mining and coal carrying railroads—the most potent combination in the anthracite fields. The Reading company with its subsidiary and allied corporations, including the Central Railroad of New Jersey and certain of their officers and directors, are charged by the federal government with violating both the Sherman anti-trust law and the commodities clause of the Interstate Commerce act in an attempt to monopolize the production and transportation of anthracite.

This combination, controlling at the present time 41 per cent of the entire unmined deposits of anthracite and marketing about 30 per cent of the annual supply, will own or control in time, if not dissolved, the attorney general warns, "every ton of commercially available anthracite known to exist."

The importance of the suit is emphasized with the declaration that in this case "only the law can afford relief." It is pointed out that it is at least possible for a monopoly to be broken by the influx of capital attracted by high profits but a monopoly of hard coal, the supply of which is limited there can be no such protection.

Is Second Step.
Today's suit is the second step in the department of justice plan to solve the "hard coal trust" situation since the decision of the supreme court last December cancelling the so-called 65 per cent contracts and ordering the dissolution of the Reading company.

The court held the government had failed to prove a general combination among all the coal carrying railroads and left open to future litigation the so-called minor combinations of which the Reading is the most important.

Former Attorney General Wickham filed a civil suit along similar lines and which is now pending against the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad company.

Attorney General McReynolds now is considering the question of attacking other alleged combinations of coal carrying railroads and coal mining companies, particularly the Lehigh Valley and the Erie and their allied coal companies. No decision as to probable action has yet been reached.

Following corporations and individuals are named as defendants in the petition in equity filed today:

Reading company, capital $140,000,000; debt $139,000,000.
Philadelphia & Reading Railway company, capital $42,481,700; debt $49,385,582.
The Philadelphia & Reading Coal and Iron company, capital $8,000,000; debt $74,574,529.
The Central Railroad company of New Jersey, capital $27,426,800; debt $47,848,000.
The Lehigh & Wilkesbarre Coal company, capital $9,312,500; debt $14,956,000.
The Lehigh Coal and Navigation company, capital $26,557,850; debt $21,409,132.

HALE WILL MAKE COMPLETE REPORT

WILSON GOES TO WASHINGTON TO RECEIVE SPECIAL REPRESENTATIVE.

LIND'S PLANS ARE NOT KNOWN

Reports That He Is to Return to United States Are Not Confirmed.

Washington, Sept. 2.—President Wilson will return to Washington tomorrow morning from Cornish, N. H., expected to meet Wm. Bayard Hale, now en route here from a special mission to Mexico for the administration. Mr. Hale's report on conditions in Mexico since the arrival of John Lind, with the peace proposals of the American government, will be made direct to the president.

Unofficial reports reached Washington today that Mr. Lind, who has been at Vera Cruz since the rejection by the Mexican government of the American proposals, would return to the United States within a few days. No confirmation of this could be procured at the state department. Secretary of State Bryan said just before leaving for a lecture engagement tonight at York, Pa., that he knew nothing of such an intention by Mr. Lind.

"I had a message from Mr. Lind today," said the secretary, "but it did not concern his movements as to the Mexican situation it can be said that matters look encouraging."

Since the departure of the president from Washington the daily characterization of the Mexican situation at the state department has been that it is "unchanged."

The renewal of the word "encouraging" just as the president returning to the capital was regarded in official circles as significant of possible developments. Mr. Bryan, however, had no explanation for his statement, except a smile, the first he has worn in discussing the tense diplomatic affairs with Mexico for many days.

One source of encouragement to Mr. Bryan today was the action of the house appropriations committee in commending in the deficiency bill the $100,000 asked by the secretary to meet the expense of bringing American citizens from Mexico.

Mr. Bryan today discussed protection of American property in Mexico with Senator Swanson of Virginia, who called to submit a complaint of a sugar company near Vera Cruz, which sugar company near Vera Cruz, which did not wish to leave its property unguarded. Several requests for further information as to the purpose of this government with regard to protection of American property in Mexico have been received here, and probable action will be taken on this matter tomorrow.

Consul Lescapier, at Tenosique, Mex., reported to the state department today that the seizure of a steamer by revolutionists had helped to leave for the United States. The consul said he had made strong representations in behalf of his countrymen and believed they would not be mistreated.

Consul Canada reported from Vera Cruz that a large number of Americans were planning to embark there Thursday on the steamer Mexicano for Galveston. Nine refugees on the Norwegian steamer City of Tampico, are due in Texas City tomorrow.

Consul Lescapier reported that many Americans in the vicinity of Chihuahua were disposed to postpone following the advice of President Wilson in regard to leaving for this country, insisting that they would rather face the hardships and the relatively small danger of present conditions than abandon their property.

Consul General Shanklin gave notice that many Americans at Mexico City were desirous of leaving for Manhattan. He reported having provided transportation for twenty-one refugees for the west coast, sending all to Manzanillo, as that route was cheaper than by way of Salina Cruz.

At Acapulco there are about twenty-five Americans who wish to leave the country and there are a few others near the port of Miniza.

Deputy Consul General Allen is at Torreón, arranging for such Americans as desire to leave the country.

DESIRE TO GET RID OF THAW

OFFICIALS OF CANADA WANT HIM HANDED TO IMMIGRATION AUTHORITIES.

LAWYERS DENOUNCE WRIT

Say Has Never Before Been Used in Such a Manner—Is but a Subterfuge.

Sherbrooke, Quebec, Sept. 2.—Harry K. Thaw won more delay today in his fight against return to the Mattawan asylum, and tonight he was back in his cell at the Sherbrooke jail. There he will remain until Superior Judge Matthew Hutchinson renders his decision on the question of sustaining or dissolving the habeas corpus writ, arguments on which were heard today in chambers. The decision may come tomorrow, but more probably on Thursday.

It was a day of alternate joy and depression for Thaw. At the opening of the hearing he faced a new and dangerous opponent in Alime Geoffroy of Quebec, a special emissary from the provincial attorney general and Premier Sir Lomer Gouin. From his lips Thaw heard that the attorney general was insistent that there be no more delay in the case and that the habeas corpus writ failing, other steps would be taken to insure Thaw's release and seizure by the immigration officers. This would mean the start of the return trip to the asylum on the Hudson.

From his counsel Thaw heard arguments sustaining the writ, from them also he heard ineffectual pleas for delay; from the crowd that packed the courtroom and streamed over the lawn he heard cheers and shouts and words of encouragement. He was nervous throughout the ordeal and returned to his cell tired out with the excitement.

Counsel for New York state argued that the writ should be sustained, and Thaw's lawyers opposed it. Shortt, White, Frazer and McKeown spoke in turn, all characterizing the proceedings by which John Boudreau, the chief of police of Coalbrook, seeks to free the man he arrested two weeks ago as smacking of fraud and hypocrisy. McKeown spoke last.

"This case," he said, "by reason of wide publicity, has assumed a position of international importance. The writ of habeas corpus is known throughout the world.

"Although we have searched every record, we have failed to find an instance where the writ was resorted to in a case like this.

"If it is sustained it will revolutionize the whole basic principle of habeas corpus."

He emphasized that the use of the writ by Boudreau in Thaw's behalf, without Thaw's consent, a fraud and subterfuge.

"It is being used," he continued, "to hand Thaw from one jurisdiction to another without his consent."

"As an alien under the British flag Thaw has his rights and is entitled to his full measure of time to prepare for trial. We shall carry the case to the foot of the throne, if necessary."

Mr. Geoffroy left Sherbrooke this afternoon for Quebec and it is unknown whether he would return.

"I do not know," he said, "whether Thaw will be deported; I do not care. But our provincial jails cannot be used as a boarding house or as a place to escape the immigration laws."

The belief prevailed in Sherbrooke tonight that if the writ is granted the attorney general will take immediate steps to have the commitment quashed. Thaw then will be free, that is, for the brief instant before he is taken in charge by the immigration authorities.

INTERURBANS COLLIDE

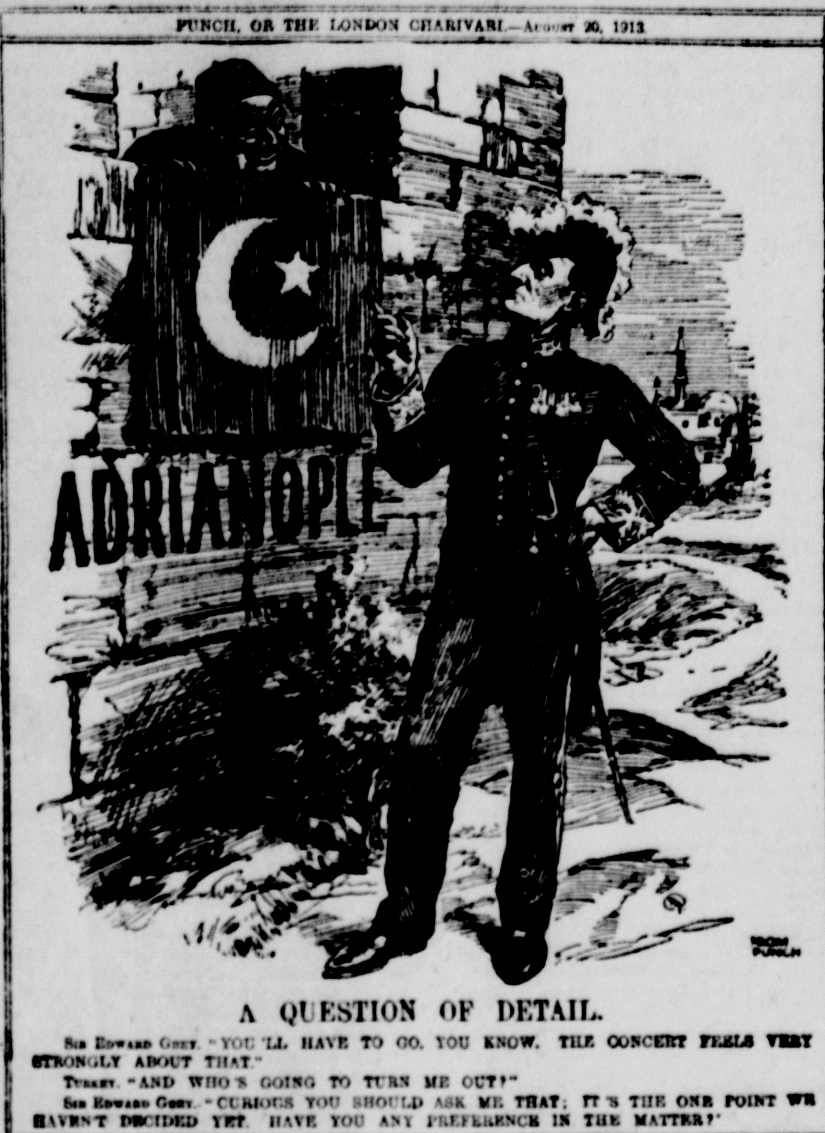

TWELVE PERSONS INJURED IN CRASH JUST OUTSIDE OF DALLAS.

Cars Run Together on Curve—Motorman Jack Stubblefield Fatally Hurt.

Fort Worth, Sept. 2.—Twelve persons were injured, two seriously, when two interurban cars met head-on while rounding a curve at Ravenna stop, just outside Dallas, at 3:25 this afternoon. The cars are No. 218, limited, from Fort Worth, and No. 23, a local out of Dallas. Neither car was reported as running at high speed.

One of the seriously injured is Motorman Jack Stubblefield, 42, of this city. One of his legs is broken in four places and the skin on his body is peeled from the hips down. It is believed his injuries will prove fatal, as there are indications that he is hurt internally. All of the injured were taken to Dallas for a relief car that was dispatched to the scene as soon as the report of the wreck was received. The injured were taken to the Baptist sanitarium. W. R. Miller probably will die and Stubblefield also is believed to be fatally injured.

The list of injured follows: W. R. Miller, Dallas, hurt about the head; probably fatally.
Jack Stubblefield, motorman, compound fracture of the leg and internal injuries.
Rufus Falter, Tolbert, Texas.
H. M. Thornton, Arlington.
H. P. Fleming, Dallas.
C. D. Allen, Rural Route No. 2, Dallas.
Mrs. Gertrude Emmer, Dallas.
Mrs. Ed Smith, Dallas.
Miss Ruby M. Hart, Dallas.
Arthur Derigo, Eldridge, Texas.
Joe Johnston, Fort Worth.
M. J. Y. Rankin, agent of the interurban company at Fort Worth. Rankin was only slightly bruised.

TWENTY-ONE PERSONS KILLED IN NEW HAVEN COLLISION

Express Going at Forty Miles an Hour in Fog Crashes Into Sleepers of a Train That Was Standing Still—Nearly Fifty Are Injured.

New Haven, Sept. 2.—Twenty-one persons were killed and nearly fifty injured, some of whom may die, in a rear-end collision shortly before 7 o'clock this morning on the New York, New Haven and Hartford, six miles north of here.

The first section of the White Mountain Express, bound for New York, which was traveling at about 40 miles an hour in a thick fog, rushed by a danger signal, it is said, and crashed into the rear of the second section of the Bar Harbor Express, standing 100 feet beyond the block signal.

The White Mountain engine cleaved through the two rear Pullman cars, both of wood, splitting them in two and tossing their wreckage and three score of mangled human beings, some alive, some dead, on either side of the track.

The third car, also of wood, and occupied by forty boys, on their way from a summer camp at Monmouth, Maine, was lifted into the air and fell on its side and crumpled up, crushing two of the boys to death and injuring others.

Some of the victims of the two rear Pullmans were hurled from their berths over a fence paralleling the track fifty feet away, mattress and bedding and clothing finding lodgment on the telegraph wires. It was the third serious wreck which the New Haven has suffered within a year and inaugurated the first day of the region of Howard Elliott, the newly-elected head of the road. Mr. Elliott returned from his summer home in New Hampshire to assume his duties, and passed over the scene of the wreck on an earlier train less than an hour before.

Practically all of the passengers on both trains were returning home from summer vacations, and all but two of a camping party of nine, guests of S. Crozer Fox of Elkins Park, Pa., returning from Maine, were wiped out. Fox was among those killed. No one was hurt on the White Mountain train.

List of Dead.
The dead list, revised from the coroner's report and from the list issued by the railroad company, is:
Altschul, Wm. Norfolk, Va.
Armstrong, Miss Margaret. Washington, D. C.
Bullitt, Miss Mary L. Philadelphia.
Craw, Albert. New York.
Hottel, Royal. New Haven.
Biddle, Miss Harriet. Torrance, Pa.
Martin, H. F. Bryn Mawr, Pa.
McQuillen, Daniel Neal, Jr., Philadelphia.
Fox, S. Crozer, Elkins Park, Pa.
Rutter, Frank L., Scranton, Pa.
Davis, Miss Emilie Kennedy, Philadelphia.
Yahn, Robert. Philadelphia.
Hottel, Philo. New Haven.
Mary Jane, residence unknown.
Immar, Harry K. New York.
Unidentified dead:
Elderly man, 145 pounds, aged 60.
Elderly woman weighing about 200 pounds, evidently of German birth; had gold band ring, inscribed "For life and for death—4-30-76."
Woman aged about 35; had diamond cluster ring engraved D. B. L. for G. B. L. on left hand; locket with "F. B. Band."

Man, gray hair, brown eyes, smooth face (inquiries made for Hale Steinman, Lancaster, Pa.)
The New Haven officials were frank to admit tonight that the so-called "band" block system, which on this part of the line has not yet been replaced by semaphore system recommended by the public utilities commission last December, was in a measure responsible for the wreck, although the question as to whether the engineer of the White Mountain Express, train, Augustus B. Miller, was making too much speed under the weather condition is under investigation.

Under the band system, as soon as a train passes a signal it sets red and automatically opens the signal in the previous block, allowing a train following to enter. Both more than an hour late, the two trains passed Wallingford, three miles north of the scene of the accident eight minutes apart, shortly before 7 o'clock. Eight miles ahead of them was the first section of the Bar Harbor Express and a local train, due to stop at North Haven, three miles south of the wreck, led them all.

According to officials an engineer may pass a "band" signal set at red after he has passed his train to a stop. This, according to the railroad officials, the engineer of the Bar Harbor Express did, and then came to another stop about 100 feet on the other side of the signal, a mile north of New Haven.

This opened the signal in the previous block a mile away and down a straight stretch of track, plunging through thick fog, came the White Mountain Express, with the impulse of seven cars, baggage, day coach and five sleepers behind the engine.

Meanwhile Flagman C. H. Murray

SAYS RICH MUST HELP BEAR BURDEN

LEWIS DECLARES INCOME TAX IS WAY OF REACHING CHOSEN FEW.

CLAIMS NEW YORK HAS FAILED

Time Federal Government Made the Wall Street "Breed" Do Proper Share.

Washington, Sept. 1.—An appeal by Senator Root for justice to the people of New York in the levying of the income tax and a reply by Senator Lewis of Illinois, who declared that the chosen few of wealth should be made to pay for the benefits of government, marked today's tariff debate in the senate.

Senator Root declared that his state, which paid so large a proportion of the civil war income tax, had voluntarily surrendered its constitutional protection against unfair taxation on the conviction that the wisdom of self control and moderation would stay the other states from combining to heap upon it the burden of taxation. He said that the men upon whom the income tax would fall were those upon whom New York depended as the source for meeting its great yearly expenses. He attacked the $3000 exemption as relieving the agricultural states from the burden of taxation and advocated a $1000 exemption.

Senator Lewis said New York had failed notably to make its rich men bear their share of the burden of government and that in accordance with the growing idea that where the states had failed to act, the federal government must act for them, he was ready to make the rich pay. He said Senator Root himself had preached this doctrine when secretary of state.

"Who are the people of New York for whom the senator is so solicitous?" inquired the Illinois senator. "Are they those who breed around Wall street and flock to the Waldorf-Astoria, but whose names are seldom found on the assessor's list? Are there no poor and humble in his state? Why should the senator ask that my people should be exempt from the burden of government?"

War on Wealth.
"The object of democracy is not to make itself war on legal wealth, but legal war on illegal wealth. We hear talk of war with Mexico. Who would be the first to hasten to this capital to have the army and navy sent out? It would be 'my people,' who would want the farmer's son sacrificed to protect their property and to prevent invasion of the country. Let them pay for the great benefits of government which they enjoy and not let all the burden be placed on the helpless, that they may become hopeless, too."

Several items passed over on the first reading of the bill were agreed to during the closing hours of the day's session. The Norris amendment to free list substitutes for coffee, and one to remove the duty from jute bags for grain exports were defeated.

Tonight the senate democrats caucused to undertake final disposition of various disputed sections of the bill that had been referred back to the finance committee.

Senators Chamberlain, Lane and others vigorously opposed the action.

It was decided to leave to the committee's judgment all matters referred back for further consideration except the income tax section, the cotton futures amendment, the Kenney amendment to all articles produced by trusts on the free list and certain administrative features of the bill. Although the session continued until nearly midnight, hardly a start had been made on the important problems of the day.

Just before adjourning the caucus reconsidered its action on the bird and plumage paragraphs, reversed the finance committee and adopted the original paragraphs of the bill as it came from the house prohibiting the importation of all birds and plumage except for educational or scientific purposes.

Dies of Burns.
Temple, Sept. 1.—William Schmele of Troy, who was seriously burned in a rooming house fire here that damaged the American Cafe two weeks ago, died at a local sanitarium today from the effects of his injuries. Funeral services will be conducted at the German cemetery at Blevins, Falls county. Schmele was a bachelor and made his home with his mother near Troy. He was highly respected and an industrious man.

BANKERS SHOW NO ANTAGONISM

COME BEFORE SENATE COMMITTEE ON CURRENCY IN A FRIENDLY SPIRIT.

FOR MORE FLEXIBILITY

DO NOT FEAR GOVERNMENT CONTROL.

TO PREVENT ABUSES BY BOARD

Want Central Reserve Bank or Not More Than Five-Member-ship Official.

Washington, Sept. 2.—Support for many principles of the administration currency bill was drawn from leading members of the American Bankers' Association today at the first session of the hearings, begun by the senate committee on banking and currency. Representatives of the recent conference of bankers at Chicago, who appeared to present recommendations for amendments to the bill declared they did not come in a spirit of antagonism to the bill, but in the hope that it could be so amended as to make the new system "more attractive" and more flexible. "We do not fear government control," said Sol. Wexler, vice president of the Whitney Central National bank of New Orleans, and one of the chief spokesmen for the amendments.

"We want only minority representation on the federal reserve board; not to exercise undue influence upon its actions, but to prevent abuses that might arise."

The strongest endorsement of the general purposes of the administration currency reform plan came near the close of Mr. Wexler's examination, when Senator Crawford, a republican member of the committee, declared the country banks of a state like South Dakota had nothing to gain and would suffer greatly by being compelled to withdraw part of their reserves.

"I think the senator has drawn the picture too dark and gloomy," said Mr. Wexler. "I don't think banks should be compelled to enter the new system, but it could be made attractive enough to induce them to come in. There would be real benefit, even for a state that has no stable money to do with a regional reserve bank."

Stabilizing Influence.
"Anything that will stabilize financial conditions will help all states, even new states with no large financial or industrial centers. Now there is no stabilizing influence; we are always on the edge of a precipice."

James B. Forgan, president of the First National bank of Chicago, and chairman of the Chicago conference, and Mr. Wexler testified today that in the series of suggestions for amendments to the bill made public by the bankers a week ago.

Suggestions upon which they dwell with chief emphasis today were:

That the banks rather than the federal treasury control the currency.

That a central bank, or not more than five regional banks, would be preferable to the proposed twelve regional reserve banks.

That membership of national banks in the new federal system should be optional, not compulsory, as the bill provides.

That the amount of regional reserve bank capital for which each national bank must subscribe, should be reduced from 25 per cent to 10 per cent of the national bank's capital stock.

That one regional reserve bank should not be compelled to rediscount the commercial paper held by another.

To Be Sharp Struggle.

The sharp struggle that is to be waged in the senate committee before it can reach any agreement upon currency reform legislation became apparent early in the hearing. Questions by Senators Hitchcock and O'Gorman (democrats) indicated that their views on certain provisions of the bill were at variance with those of the party leaders who engineered the measure through the preliminary stages in the house, and republican opposition to many features of the bill was pronounced.

The suggestions made by the bankers' committee, that representation be given to the banking interests on the federal reserve board, were met with a counter suggestion by Senator

Before Wife of Accused Girl Tells of Promises

San Francisco, Sept. 2.—Except for brief minor testimony to be introduced tomorrow, the government today completed its case against F. Drew Caminetti whom it seeks to prove guilty of violating the Mann act by transporting Lola Norris for immoral purposes from her home in Sacramento to Reno, Nevada.

The defense promised to rest Thursday.

Marsha Warrington and Lola Norris were the chief witnesses of the day. Miss Warrington resolutely reaffirmed the responsibility of Maury I. Diggs, recently found guilty, for her downfall.

Champane had been served in Diggs' office, she said. "I guess," she added shamefacedly, "I was intoxicated."

She testified that wines or liquors had been ordered always at the instance of Diggs and Caminetti. Miss Norris later confirmed this testimony.

The wife and mother of the defendant listened to Miss Norris closely and Caminetti frequently advised his lawyers. Diggs was again in attendance. Mrs. Caminetti displayed no emotion as she heard the girl tell how Caminetti had pressed his love on her, promising to marry her as soon as he could obtain a divorce.

"Was anything said about marriage before March 1?" she was asked. The element did not take place until the early morning of March 10 and in the meantime there had been trips to San Francisco, Stockton, San Jose and Jackson.

"No," was the answer. "The day before we left for Reno, Mr. Caminetti said his wife would petition for divorce at once and then we could be married."

"I introduced Mr. Caminetti to my people," she testified, "under a false name, because I did not want them to know I was going with a married man."

"Then why did you continue to go with Caminetti?"

"I didn't feel that I was doing her (Mrs. Caminetti) an injustice, as he told me they were going to be separated."

Return From Reno.
Robert Devlin, for the defense, is now examining the witness dwell on the return trip from Reno.

"Why did you try to protect Drew Caminetti then?"

"I wouldn't believe what they told me about Drew's deceiving me—not until later."

"What are your feelings toward him now?"

"The girl hung her head and did not answer."

"Do you feel the same affection for him?"

There was another moment of silence before she answered "no."

In this and other passages of the cross examination the essentials of her story were not changed. Its essence was that Caminetti had terrified her into leaving her home by threats of scandal; that Diggs having presented the arguments and Caminetti had followed them with personal persuasions.

Swindles Houston Man; Captured at Terre Haute

Terre Haute, Ind., Sept. 2.—With the arrest here today of George Reed, John Collins and Hugh McGinnis of Indianapolis on complaint of Cary Shaw, president of the Second National bank of Houston, the police declare they have ended the operations of a gang that in the last year has swindled wealthy men out of nearly a quarter of a million dollars. The work of the gang, the officials say, closely resembles that of the Mauby swindle syndicate and included fake prize fights.

Mr. Shaw lost $7500, according to the police, which he was induced to place in a safety deposit box here. He had brought the money from Houston to invest in a deal for 20,000 acres of Missouri land. Upon his arrival here he was shown a large amount of money by the alleged confidence men and asked to place his money with them and put it in the box, while he and two of the men went to inspect the land.

The authorities say that en route to St. Louis Shaw was induced to give up the key to the box containing the money and his companions disappeared. Another Texas banker said to have been swindled by the alleged gang is Ray Cunningham of Franklin, who now is in his way here to aid in the prosecution of the men.

Both Cunningham and Shaw met the "scout" for the alleged gang in their home towns. The operations of the gang, the authorities assert, were carried on in Arkansas, as well as Indiana, and many victims from both states are said to have filed complaints of swindles.

The police expect other arrests to be made in several cities soon, they say.

Vice President of Railroad.
Houston, Sept. 2.—Cary Shaw was formerly president of a national bank of Houston, which has since been liquidated. He is at present vice president of the Gulf Coast and Providence City Railroad company, president of the Gulf Coast Real Estate company, and treasurer of the Patillo Higgins Oil, Gas and Coal company.

SHORTAGE IN BANK FUNDS

Checking of the Accounts Finds $25,000 Missing—Bank Is Covered by a Bond.

Fort Worth, Sept. 2.—A shortage of $25,000 has been discovered at the State National bank.

Found Two Weeks Ago. The shortage was discovered two weeks ago during a periodical audit and reported to the American Bankers' Association, of which the State National is a member, and the Burns detective agency, which handles cases for this association, was detailed at once to investigate.

Officials of the bank, when asked this morning if the report of a shortage were true, frankly admitted that an apparent shortage of $25,000 had been found.

The State National bank authorities, when asked this morning if the reported discovery of the shortage were true, made this frank statement: "The shortage is fully covered by the Fidelity and Deposit company of Baltimore and the Title Guaranty company of Scranton, Pa. Apart from our disappointment over the unexpected disappearance of a trusted employee of the State National, the bank feels no concern in the matter, for the bank was never in better or more promising condition than now. Its capital, surplus and undivided profits now exceed $500,000 and its deposits are $1,480,000."

Works (republican), which it is understood will be advanced as a possible amendment when the senate committee begins consideration of the bill. This was that the bankers of the country should be allowed to submit to the president a list of fifty or a hundred men and the president be authorized to select from this list four members of the federal reserve board.

Both Mr. Wexler and Mr. Forgan advocated a central bank as preferable to the proposed system. Under a central bank, they said, reserve money could be "fed out" through two hundred or more branches, to the precise spot where it was needed, without forcing one independent reserve bank to arbitrarily discount the paper of another.

The bankers claimed that under the proposed system of twelve regional reserve associations it would be possible to secure enough capital in some districts to make up the minimum of $5,000,000. They declared that many changes must be made in the bill including the reduction in the amount of capital required to be taken by each bank if the 17,000 state banks and trust companies were to be induced to enter the new system.

Members of the committee present today included George M. Reynolds, president of the Continental and Commercial National Bank of Chicago; Festus J. Wade, president of the Mercantile Trust company of St. Louis; P. J. Hill, vice president of the National Bank of New York; Norwalk Conn.; Joe Chapman, vice president of the North-western National Bank of Minneapolis; Robert P. Maddox, vice president of the American National Bank of Atlanta.

TWENTY-ONE PERSONS KILLED

of the Bar Harbor train, had gone back with the torpedoes, a distance, it was said, of four hundred feet. The torpedoes went off, according to officials of the road, and some of the train crew. Then came the crash. According to Vice President Whaley of the New Haven it would not have been possible at the speed the train was making for Engineer Miller to have stepped within 1,500 feet after he saw the signal. The engineer did not see it, he said, until he was almost upon it, or scarcely more than one hundred feet from the rear of the Bar Harbor express and at the same moment he heard the torpedoes.

Told to Abolish System. Chief Engineer Ellwell said tonight the New Haven has been twice advised by the public utilities commission to abolish the "banjo" system, once last December and again in March, following minor wrecks in both of which the blame was laid at the door of the "banjo" system.

Passengers in both trains were asleep when the collision occurred. The White Mountain's engine, No. 1347, twin of the new Pacific superheated locomotive that figured in the Stamford wreck of last June, ploughed through the two parlor cars of the Bar Harbor train.

For some minutes after the shock there was silence and then sounded the screams of the wounded. Passengers from both trains turned out to the work of rescue. They found the dead and injured strewn on both sides of the track, but there were few in the wreck.

The terrific force of the impact had literally reduced the two Pullmans to the merest kiding wood and the bodies of the passengers either fell upon the wreckage or were hurled over a fence into a watermelon patch.

The vestibule of one Pullman, sitting astride the pilot of the locomotive, and the vestibule of the other, inside the ditch, were the only parts of the two cars not demolished. Tonight the wreckage was burned by railroad employees.

Trolley cars were pressed into service to bring to New Haven both the dead and dying. A part of the White Mountain train took some of the injured to Meriden and the undamaged cars of the Bar Harbor train were used to bring others to this city, where they were placed in hospitals.

There were eighteen in the hospitals here, and some are in serious condition. Some of the less seriously hurt went on to New York.

The death list grew from thirteen to twenty-one seventeen of whom were identified and four unidentified, during the afternoon and evening. Several of those badly injured died on their way to hospitals or after reaching there.

Daniel Dunn, a former Yale football star and athletic instructor of the campers, and Harry L. Mooney, who is in charge of them, came out of the wreck unscathed and led in the rescue work. Practically all of their young charges were in the overturned third car, the Chisholm.

To Determine Blame. The first steps to determine who was to blame were taken in secret. Nor will the inquest be public if Coroner Nix adheres to his announced plan. At the preliminary hearing this afternoon, trainmen of the two trains were examined.

Later what purported to be a synopsis of the testimony was given out. According to this recital, every possible precaution was taken. The flagman of the Bar Harbor express went back when his train stopped, placed torpedoes on the track and stood ready to stop any train that might be following. He was recalled by an engine whistle.

REPEATS STUNTS IN AN AEROPLANE

FRENCH AVIATOR PROVES UP-SIDE DOWN FEAT NOT ACCIDENT.

FLIES WITH HEAD DOWN

Wheels of Plane on Top—Experts Claim It Is a Great Discovery.

Versailles, France, Sept. 2.—The thrilling maneuvers of turning a somersault in the air with an aeroplane flying at rapid speed was successfully repeated today by the French aviator Pegoud over the aerodrome at Buc.

Pegoud had promised that his performance at Juvisy yesterday was not the result of accident but was a proof of perfect control and also of the aeroplane's stability.

A dense fog had settled over the district around Buc this morning and this delayed Pegoud's ascent for three hours and a half. Then the sun burst through and cleared away the mist. Pegoud ran his aeroplane into the center of the field and indicated to a battery of moving picture operators and newspaper photographers the part of the sky from which he would begin to fly with his head downward.

He then took his seat at the motor and rose in a spiral to a height of 3000 feet. There he turned his aeroplane into a vertical position, with its tail upward and dived downward toward the earth. When he descended to an altitude of 1500 feet he began with his machine to describe a vast letter "S."

The wheels of the aeroplane were clearly visible in the middle of the "S" sticking upward, while Pegoud could be seen hanging with his head down. The aviator sailed along in this position for about fifty seconds. Then his craft, with a great sweeping curve, came again into a horizontal position, this time with the aviator head upward.

The silence which hitherto had been disturbed by the whirr of the motor, was broken by a tremendous cheer from the crowd.

Meanwhile Pegoud spiraled to earth. He had been in the air only ten minutes.

BAR ENDORSES POLICY

ASSOCIATION, IN SESSION IN MONTREAL, ADOPTS RESOLUTION OF APPROVAL.

U. S. President, ex-President and Presidential Candidate Figure in Day's Proceedings.

Montreal, Sept. 2.—The president of the United States, an ex-president and a former candidate for the presidency, figured today by name or by actual presence in the proceedings of the American Bar Association's annual meeting. The association adopted a resolution endorsing President Wilson's education in regard to Mexico. Ex-President Taft addressed the members tonight, advocating greater independence of the judiciary. Judge Alton B. Parker, democratic candidate for president in 1904, proposed the resolution, unanimously adopted for the approval of the association.

Mr. Taft's address, delivered at Royal Victoria college, was the event of the evening. His subject was "The Selection and Tenure of Judges." He argued that judges should be appointed instead of elected and should hold office for life. Tomorrow the ex-president will speak before the section on judicial education on "The Social Importance of proper standards for admission to the bar."

A resolution asking the association to condemn use of the "third degree" was disapproved by the committee on jurisprudence and law reform. The committee also disapproved abolishing the life tenure of federal judges.

The committee on uniform state laws submitted a so-called "marriage evasion act" and a special committee reported in favor of uniform laws for compensation for industrial accidents and their prevention. The committee on patent and copyright law disapproved the suggestion that the commerce court constitute a court of patent appeal and urged creation of a separate court. Thomas W. Shelton, chairman of the committee on uniform judicial procedure reported that "Ex-President Taft's dream of interstate judicial relations" seemed near consummation.

MEN DIE TOO SOON

Dr. Elliott Hits Present Day Civilization Hard—Tells of Waning Vitality.

Dr. Charles W. Elliott, Harvard's retired president, says the civilization of the last hundred years is working destruction of the human race; its health and length of life. This is seen in the reduced vitality of multitudes who live in our closely built cities; people are dying sooner, more are going insane, becoming criminals, and fewer healthful children are born.

Lack of physical vitality is the cause of nine-tenths of present day diseases, the human system being incapable of throwing them off. Nerve-wrecked, dyspeptic, debilitated, constipated, rheumatic, kidney-and-liver-diseased, people are found everywhere, the result of diminished vitality.

Vitalitas, the marvelous new earth fluid, is restocking systems that are sapped of vitality and in this way overcoming disease. Nothing known to modern science is so effective as this new curative force of Nature. It stimulates all weakened or diseased tissues and begins an immediate work of repair.

Thousands are finding new health and freedom from disease in this earth fluid. It is pleasant to take, and it is fully guaranteed.

You can see how Vitalitas is extracted and you can sample it today at the display in progress at the Powers-Kelly Drug Co.

FEW AMERICANS ARE LEAVING

Exodus From Mexico About Stopped, Except in the Yaqui River Valley.

Mexico City, Sept. 2.—The American exodus from Mexico City has practically ceased. A score or more of Americans who arrived here today from interior points called at the consulate but have made no arrangements so far for proceeding. Those of the better classes decline to accept average passage, but say that they are willing to take any accommodation on an American transport where they could feel assured of sanitary quarters and proper treatment.

Consul General Shanklin, however, has not received any intimation that such a transport will be sent to Mexican waters.

Mr. Linn, President Wilson's personal envoy, had indicated he has no intention of returning to Mexico City unless assured he could be of service in reopening the negotiations.

The Mexican foreign office has made no move to give such assurances. In some quarters it is thought that possibly unexpected developments may follow the arrival of Wm. Bayard Hale in Washington, where he is understood to have gone to lay some new phases of the situation before the president.

Prepare to Leave.

Douglas, Ariz., Sept. 2.—Practically all Americans in the Yaqui river valley and sections surrounding Guaymas have begun preparations to leave for the United States. Request has been made to the state department that a warship be sent to the mouth of the Mayo and Yaqui rivers to receive refugees. A warning has been issued by American Consul Agent Hostetter of Hermosillo, who has suggested that, under the terms, it is said, that President Wilson employed in his general request.

Several small bands of Indians were reported to have taken the field independently of the insurgent troops who virtually control Sonora state. The Indians, it is reported, have not withdrawn their demand that all lands formerly in their possession be returned.

MCCORMICK HELD FOR RANSOM.

Second Time in Life Is in Hands of Freebooters.

El Paso, Sept. 2.—A. W. McCormick of San Antonio, superintendent of the Palomas Land and Cattle company in Northern Chihuahua, is held prisoner by Maximo Gallo Mexican freebooters for a ransom of $10,000.

This is the second time he has been held for ransom. During the Orozco revolution he was forced to pay $5,000.

Yesterday a Mexican brought a report to Hachita, N. M. that McCormick was held a prisoner again and an El Paso bank received a request from McCormick through a friend to forward $10,000. The money was sent to Hachita, whence it is to be taken to the camp of Catillo.

Individual Defendants. The nine individual defendants are declared to be responsible for the continuation of the combinations and monopolizations embodied in the formation of the Reading Holding company, which is declared to be "an and of itself" a combination in restraint of trade and a monopoly.

The government asks the court to dissolve the Reading company's control of the Central Railway of New Jersey, of the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad company, of the Philadelphia & Reading Coal and Iron company, of the Schuylkill Navigation company and of the Wilmington & Northern Railroad company.

Dissolution also is sought of the joint control by the Central Railroad company of New Jersey and the Lehigh Coal and Navigation company, of the Lehigh & Hudson River Railway company and the Lehigh & New England Railroad company.

In seeking these dissolutions Attorney General McKelvey, who is averse to the pro rata distribution of the stock of a dissolved "trust" as being inadequate, specifically urges that the stocks be disposed of under the supervision and direction of the court to persons not the stockholders or agents or otherwise under the control or influence of the present owners. Pending the distribution the government asks that the defendants be enjoined from voting the stock or from receiving dividends thereon.

SPECIAL COTTON PALACE DAYS ARE FIXED BY THE DIRECTORS

Germans Plan a Big Program—Secretary Reports Many Free Stunts for the War Path; Some of the Speakers

The discussion of the various special days during the Cotton Palace and the disposition of matters of routine occupied the attention of the directors at their regular bi-monthly meeting last night in the Chamber of Commerce. A committee representing the Germans was present to talk over plans with the directors regarding the "German Day."

G. H. Luedde, A. F. Sontag and W. J. Geisler, representing the Germans, stated to the directors that it was the desire of their people to have the greatest day this year that had ever been planned. After a general discussion of plans and suggestions it was determined to leave the nature of the features of the day entirely to the German people. A number of ideas were suggested in the nature of celebrations such as erecting a typical German village, having a German Saengerfest; German dancers, but the prevailing sentiment seemed to favor a mammoth parade with inside attractions. This, however, will be in the hands of the German committee at the request of the directors. Steps were taken to appropriate sufficient funds to advertise the day over the entire state.

Arrangements made by Secretary S. N. Mayfield assure the "War Path" more free attractions than ever in the history of the palace. Among the amusements free to visitors will be Roman chariot races, standing seque stunts, high stool horses, high dive on the bicycle and several other features that will be throughout the day and at night.

Plans are being made to secure for "Farmers' Day" on November 15, some of the most prominent men of the state on agriculture, probably Peter Radford and S. A. Lindsey. The socialists have asked that Eugene V. Debs be secured as one of the speakers and the matter is under advisement. An attempt will also be made to secure Governor Colquhoun and his entire staff to be present one day.

The suggestion was made that one circuit with interesting and laughable stunts of horses and burlesques. The plan will probably be carried out. For public school day I. Friedlander was appointed to arrange for an old-fashioned spelling match to include representatives from all the schools in this part of the state.

BIG FURNITURE HOUSE IS MOVING

The O. W. Wilson Furniture Co. Getting into Larger Quarters Owing to Rapid Growth.

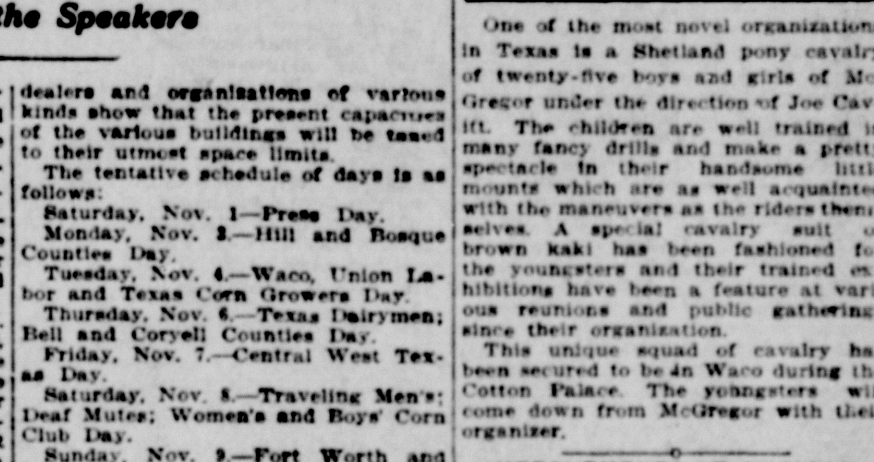

The O. W. Wilson Furniture company, which has been located at 303 South Third street, is now moving into its new store building at 118-120 North Fourth. In their new quarters they will carry one of the most complete lines of furniture, stoves, rugs, art squares, etc., and can furnish your home from kitchen to parlor complete, and at any price you may want to pay.

This company has enjoyed a phenomenal business since beginning here in Waco, due to fair dealing, liberality, low prices and easy terms, which are so adjusted that the dollar a day man as well as the bank president can buy from them.

The stock of furniture carried by this house is as good as can be found in the city. They cater to all classes of people and do not, like some big credit stores, ask an enormous profit. They keep prices down whether you pay cash or not, and this has been one secret of their big success. Then they maintain a corps of courteous, painstaking salesmen who know how to take care of the trade, and from the proprietor on down, each and everyone of them extends you a hearty welcome to visit them in their new store at 118-120 North Fourth street.

CHICHESTER'S PILLS

WACO, TEXAS

One of the most novel organizations in Texas is a Shetland pony cavalry of twenty-five boys and girls of McGregor under the direction of Joe Cavitt. The children are well trained in many fancy drills and make a pretty spectacle in their handsome little mounts which are as well acquainted with the maneuvers as the riders themselves. A special cavalry suit of brown kiki has been fashioned for the youngsters and their trained exhibitions have been a feature at various reunions and public gatherings since their organization.

This unique squad of cavalry has been secured to be in Waco during the Cotton Palace. The youngsters will come down from McGregor with their organizer.

Gholson, Sept. 2.—A $1500 addition is being put on the Gholson public school building. The contract has been let and the citizens of Gholson are rejoicing much over this badly needed improvement.

MOULDEN SUCCEEDS WHITE

Chief Clerk in Comptroller's Department Is Ousted by Lane.

Austin, Sept. 2.—J. P. Moulden will take the oath of office tomorrow as chief clerk in the comptroller's department. The resignation of Chief Clerk White, although requested by Comptroller Lane, has never been tendered at this time. The request for the resignation of Mr. White came with his announcement that he would be a candidate for comptroller.

Mr. White questioned the power of the comptroller to remove him without valid reasons and advised Acting Governor Mayes that he had filed a protest against the acceptance of the bond of Mr. Moulden while he (White) had as yet not tendered any resignation.

Acting Governor Mayes submitted the question to the attorney general's department and upon the favorable reply attested the bond of Mr. Moulden, amounting to $10,000.

The attorney general replied that inasmuch as the office of chief clerk was filled by appointment, no definite term having been fixed by the constitution or by statutory law, that the office was held at the pleasure of the appointing power and the incumbent might be removed at any time.

$4,000,000 BRIDGE.

Washington, Sept. 2.—Plans for a $4,000,000 bridge that would link the capital with Virginia, it was announced today, were being considered by the house committee on commerce. The difficulty facing the committee at present is said to be the selection of the site for the Virginia terminus of the structure. It is proposed to make the bridge a structure that will stand for centuries and will admit of the passage of such shipping as uses the upper Potomac river. Under the tentative plans the bridge would have eighty feet of clearance from the river's surface, thus doing away with the necessity of draws. The details of being worked out by a sub-committee and a report is expected in the immediate future.

A DENVER MARRIAGE TODAY CONCERNS WACO FRIENDS

It has been written to old home friends by the mother of the bride, Mrs. Walter Macpherson, that today her only daughter, Miss Anna Macpherson, becomes a bride. The groom is a Denver man. Further than this no details are yet known. As the granddaughter of C. M. Hubby and the niece of Mrs. Walter Macpherson, of Turner and A. G. Hubby, this becomes an occasion where family as well as friends are interested.

ARMY AND NAVY JOURNAL HAS NOTE OF INTEREST

The last issue of the Army and Navy Journal contains a paragraph of personal interest in Waco society. It is this, Lieutenant W. R. Munroe is mentioned as host on the Alert at a dinner dance. The men guests are listed as officers, and the hostess as Mrs. Munroe. The courtesy is reported as given to Lieutenant Munroe's Texas friends. Included are the Misses Westbrook, Rosalie Sturges and a Miss White. Aside from the mutual pleasure between host and guests, it was an enviable experience to the island girl to have dinner on a real vessel of Uncle Sam.

In this connection it is a matter of further note that Lieutenant Munroe, who has been stationed at San Diego, is now transferred to naval construction work at Seattle.

THE LOS ANGELES TIMES HAS NOTICE OF WACO GIRL Preceding her marriage which takes place in Los Angeles today, the Los Angeles Times printed full side portrait of Miss Rosalie Sturges and includes her among the notable weddings of the season. The groom, Mr. Edwin Randall Wheeler, is mentioned as a millionaire merchant of Tacoma, and states that passage will be taken immediately after the wedding for Tacoma, where a beautiful home and a royal welcome into society awaits the bride. Miss Sturges is referred to as having spent the season in Los Angeles and that hers would be a quiet wedding of interest to several states. Reference is also made to the many prominent Wacoans who would be present.

This clipping was accompanied by a private letter which stated that Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler will come to Waco for the Cotton Palace, after which their wedding trip will be made to Japan. The Wacoans all leave tomorrow for the homeward trip. They will arrive about Sunday.

AU REVOIR FOR MRS. ROENCH ON LAWN OF MRS. BRAY

It was indeed a pleasing act of friendship upon the part of the Mesdames B. B. Bray, P. G. Taylor, Walter Reese and F. M. Compton to afford the many friends of Mrs. Max Roench the opportunity for a last hour with her and to bid her goodnight in the new home to which she has already gone. During the several seasons in which she was a member of the North Fifth street colony Mrs. Roench endeared herself as few neighbors do. Thereafter it was the heart truly which prompted the demonstration which gave her a happy au revoir. And yet it was truly with regret that she was relinquished to Galveston. The quartette of hostesses received on the lawn of Mrs. Bray. This is in ideal condition, and the hour set was such as to bring shade and cool. Several remained through the time, and the Misses Lillian Taylor, Lillian Evans and Ruby Farmer were around the punch table. The back yard came in for many compliments from the front, so smooth was the lawn, so graceful the vine, and so beautifully grown the beds. The punch table was a trellis for the natural grape vine and its cluster of wild fruit, gathered for this effective service. More than a hundred called, and more than a hundred paid compliment to Mrs. Bray's beautiful yard. It was sincerely said, that each of the guests was regretful that this was her last pleasant hour with Mrs. Roench. Aside from the personal association, this beautiful little au fresco reception was a delightful interruption of late season quiet.

MRS. SADIE McDONALD CHARMED WITH WHITE SULPHUR

It was in rather a doubtful mood that the Mesdames Robert Downman and Sadie Cameron McDonald decided to have a first summer in the south. Circumstances seemed to point toward the famous old White Sulphur, so the most attractive cottage was engaged, and to this the Mesdames McDonald and Downman went early in the season. They are now leaving for two weeks in the New York City, and report one of the most delightful seasons ever experienced. Europe with its gay Paris and playful Switzerland, to say nothing of life at Carlsbad, not even excepted. The Mesdames Downman and McDonald have been participants in all the White Sulphur games, and as is usual with them, they have contributed their full share; indeed, just as they were closing their cottage they gave a dinner and a supper said to be the crowning social event of the season and the loveliest ever given at the Sulphur. Nor has the tiny daughter been deprived of pleasure. Little Virginia Downman rides horseback, swims gracefully, and is a graceful dancer, so she has entered into the social life of the juveniles. The hotel at Green River is reported upon a par with the exclusive Carlton in London. And here it is reminded that two other Waco matrons stopped there early in the season; these were the Mesdames Homer Wilson and Fred Meyer of North Twelfth street. Several hundred southerners have been sojourners at this hotel within the now passing summer. In closing their cottage the Mesdames Downman and McDonald had a few days of hotel life. The White Sulphur season is now pronounced over for 1913.

PROF. AND MRS. STROTHER HAVE GOOD WISHES TODAY

Fifty-three years gone by—can you believe it?—occurred the marriage of Professor and Mrs. J. T. Strother. This was in East Texas, but very soon after passage was taken for Waco, and from that time until today, more than half a hundred years, Professor and Mrs. Strother have lived among the friends who will give them good wishes today. And who will extend these good wishes? Practically every old citizen of this city, for no couple carries more respect and good will. In their Christian life Professor and Mrs. Strother have been beloved. In their neighborhood they are endeared to all. As a citizen Professor Strother has the respect of all. But, lingering in almost as many hearts as there are boys now growing to men, is the memory of days when Professor Strother in the school which he taught for many, many years. It is more than interesting to hear the testimonials of these boys as to what the instruction there has meant to their later school life. It is hoped that these boys this week will be by means of their message to the Strother home today. Professor Strother was a convert to the idea that to spare the rod was to spoil the child. His blithely the boys of times gone by all knew, and some feel, that laugh at it now, and pay Professor Strother the tribute which he deserves, that of laying a foundation in mathematics which has developed engineers and other professions which would otherwise have been impossible. Today, then is not the golden wedding of this esteemed couple; it is three years further upon wedded life. This life has been useful, consecrated, and happy. Their children today are here to call this life blessed. And friends are here to testify the worth of Professor and Mrs. Strother.

COUNCIL OF JEWISH WOMEN ISSUES FIRST YEAR BOOK

On Monday the first issue of the year book for the local council of Jewish Women was distributed. This, even with only a glance outside, is quite creditable for an organization less than a year old, for the date of organization is given as February 21. The embodiment of the aim of the council is in the couplet.

"Let knowledge grow from more to more
But more of reverence in us dwell."

This means study mentally, and cultivation of the reverence for the holy Jewish religion. The motto is Faith and Humanity, faith in God and work for the human. For the members the calendar of Jewish holidays with dates is printed. The order of business for conducting the meetings is outlined. Instructions for members only follow. The pledge of membership is also given. This doubtless is for the benefit of prospective members who may proceed towards entering the council with full information as to what will be required of them. The roster of officers is: President, Mrs. Abe Frank; vice president, Mesdames Alfred Godshaw and Dave Lashman; secretaries, the Mesdames I. Toomin and Isaac Simmons; treasurer, Mrs. Sam Freund; auditor, Mrs. Alfred Herz; and parliamentarian, Mrs. S. J. Davidson. There is a board of directors and a chairman for each standing committee. These committees represent membership, Sabbath school and religion, night school and immigrant aid, settlement work, hospital, educational and sex hygiene, pure press, legal aid, social, hospitality, local press, courtesy, reciprocity, study circle, music, seeking out student in boarding schools, philanthropy, finance and sewing circle. This shows the broad scope of work undertaken by the council. Apparently the outline conforms to that of the national organization, however, some of the phases will not apply to our location here. The council as a whole will meet the first Tuesday in each month, beginning with October. At this time reports from the chairmen will be heard and general business conducted. Alternating, the study feature will be followed. Hostesses are assigned for each general session.

which means that pleasure follows business. At each general session a formal address will be delivered. I. A. Goldstein, Mrs. A. H. Newman, Dr. E. Toomin will not give these. One children's afternoon will be in charge of Mrs. Toomin and Miss Evelyn Friedman. Also there will be two night sessions, when the addresses will be given by prominent visitors. One will be the State Federation of Women's clubs, Mrs. Eli Hertzberg, of San Antonio, and the other by Dr. Cohen of Galveston.

The study circle will be bi-weekly. This will follow Jewish scriptures and literature with music.

The membership list is full and shows remarkable growth for the few months of existence. Other towns are represented.

The chairmen of standing committees to whom matters pertaining to any one of the several subjects should be referred are: Mesdames Louie Migo, Harry Sachs, S. Archenhold, H. Chiman, Alfred Herz, H. Mayer, Sam Simons, I. Simmons, L. Simmons, E. Toomin, Alfred Godshaw, Nathan Cinnamon, H. Novich, Ed Hirschfeld, J. D. Novich and Sam Freund, with the Mesdames Lena Adelman, Goldie Hart, Elsie Simmons, Esther Gross.

Society Notes.

Mrs. J. J. Durham has returned from her extended sojourn in California and has taken a cottage on North Eleventh near Providence Sanitarium. Miss Olga Durham is leaving within the next few days to enter the College of Industrial Arts at Denton.

The latest summer movement of Miss Minnie Taylor is to leave the mountain home which she with the Messrs. Downs and Taylor found so pleasant, and joined Mr. and Mrs. Sam Webb with the Misses Webb in Denver and Manitou.

It is distressing news that Mrs. C. W. White should have lost three diamonds from a ring during her present sojourn at Mineral Wells. These were valued as an heirloom as well as for their intrinsic worth.

Miss Eva Austin is preparing to leave her home in Laredo at an early date to enter Columbia university for winter study. She will specialize in dramatic expression, for it is here that Miss Austin's greatest talent lies. Her mother, Mrs. T. A. Austin, will also go to New York City and remain a month for the fall awakening in styles and theatres.

Mrs. J. B. Woody becomes matron of the North Fifth street cottage which has been occupied by Mrs. F. Compton for some time. Mrs. Compton's new home is not yet decided.

Some day the writer is going to sharpen her pencil to its keenest point and tell about some of the selfishness of those who might be in the way. There is plenty to tell, and right here in Waco.

Be it said to the everlasting credit of the men and women who enjoyed Labor Day picnic, from hundreds of homes, only four suffered with the stiff check rein while their masters rode the merry-go-round. This means that, from among the many only this very few are selfish and heartless.

It is now the expectation of Mrs. Leah Gardner that she will be matron of her pretty little new home on North Eleventh with the middle of this month.

Mrs. W. W. Seley is in Chicago enjoying a reunion with her sisters. No time is set for her homecoming. In the meantime Mrs. Harvey Richey is matron of the Seley home and will have her late week guest Mrs. Rives Posten Halsey from Corsicana.

Meredith Nicholson is out with a new novel, "Catholics," which has the distinction of not having appeared in serial form. Anything Nicholson writes is interesting. Considering that Jessie McLendon and Nelson Smith, Jr. are Culver students, and that Bill Kelly, who entered this year, it is a matter of personal interest with Nicholson to know that Culver is the scene depicted among the chapters of the book which made the author's fame. "The House With a Thousand Candies."

Members are reminded of the weekly dance at the Country club tonight.

Many are inquiring when The Morning News will resume its society calendar for each day. The reply is, just as soon as events multiply sufficiently to make a calendar.

The excellent address of Mrs. T. H. Claypool as one of the Labor Day speakers was read with great interest. It received many compliments.

England Wants Bar Association.

London, Sept. 2.—The idea of establishing in England an organization similar to the American Bar association has been revived among English barristers by the detailed reports which are published here of the American association meeting in Montreal. The law society serves the purpose so far as the legal profession in England is concerned, but the bar remains without any machinery for gathering opinion among barristers as to important legal matters, for the bar council is neither a representative nor a powerful body.

A scheme has been broached for holding in London during the last week of the long vacation a congress of barristers at which politics, legal problems and other matters of special interest to the bar may be discussed. Out of this it is believed an organization similar to the American Bar association might be developed.

The address of the British lord high chancellor in Montreal yesterday is published fully here, with the editorial prediction that it will help to cement Anglo-American amity.

Y. M. B. L. DIRECTORS

DR. GEORGIA REPORTS PRO-GRESS ON THE NATURAL GAS MATTER.

Trip to Dallas Is Discussed—Invitation to Waterways Convention.
Interurban Jubilee.

The members of the present directorate of the Young Men's Business League held their last meeting last night in their room. All the officers and all but one of the directors were present. The meeting was called to order promptly at 8 o'clock by President Trau.

Dr. W. B. Georgia was called upon for a report of his committee on getting a gas pipe line between here and Mexico, and reported that a company had been found which was willing to expend $450,000 of outside capital in promoting the line provided they could get a guarantee that Waco would take a hundred million cubic feet of gas a day. It was stated that over forty million feet had been contracted to date. On motion of Harry Rohrer the committee was granted more time.

Sam Knight of the committee on arrangements for an interurban excursion and boosting trip to Dallas on the event of the opening of the interurban, reported that the committee would make a detailed report after it had learned the exact date of the operation of the first cars.

The matter of a Y. M. B. L. day at the Cotton Palace was then brought up and nothing definite done, though it was the general opinion that all outside organizations should have the first choice.

J. Mitchell Nash, chairman of the special committee on resolutions, read a report of his committee on resolutions on the death of Frank J. Battle, which report was adopted by the directors.

Boosting Trip to Dallas.
The committee on transportation to arrange for a boosting trip to Dallas during the fair, made a partial report, in which they stated that all the arrangements could be easily made and the committee was ready to do its part at all times called upon, but in view of the experience of small towns with such a project they were doubtful of its wisdom. On motion of W. V. Crawford the committee was given further time and instructed to get the rates and all the details ready for an early report.

Inland Waterways League.
An invitation was read by the secretary from the Interstate Inland Waterways league to the Young Men's Business league to send delegates to the ninth annual convention at Orange on October 17 and 18, and asked for all the publicity possible. The letter also asked the league to take up the matter with the mayor, and ask him to name delegates to attend the convention. On motion of W. V. Crawford, the request was granted.

Dry Farming Congress.
A letter was then read calling attention to the International Dry Farming congress and the soil products exposition to be held in Tulsa, Okla., from October 22 to November 1. The letter had been mailed the Central Texas Exchange National bank and was brought before the directors by W. W.
Woodson, who suggested that the Y. M.
B. L. might be able to gain some ideas from the dry farming congress, and perhaps hold one here next spring. The letter was referred to the committee on agriculture, with instructions to study the plans of the congress to be held in Oklahoma.

Mr. Woodson moved that the suggestion in a report of two weeks before, that a detailed statement of the league's financial and membership condition be included in the minutes of each weekly meeting, and a monthly report at the general meeting be made,
be adopted, which motion was carried, and the secretary was so instructed to prepare his minutes.

A ballot, sent out by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States and carrying several amendments to the Glass-Owens currency bill was brought before the meeting. This ballot, as explained by W. V. Crawford and W.
W. Woodson, was sent out by the Washington organization with the idea of getting the opinion of the currency measures now in the democratic congress. Seven amendments were offered in the ballot and the league was requested to vote on the amendments.

On the motion of W. V. Crawford, the matter was dropped, Mr. Crawford saying that in his opinion the matter was one too much involved in politics for the league to discuss.

Chairman Crawford of the publicity committee then read two letters from advertising agencies offering to put up and maintain twenty billboards in different parts of the state, and letting the rights of way of trunk line railroads for $75 per month, provided a contract for three years could be made.
This subject was tabled to be brought up at the general meeting next Tuesday night.

A news agency, through the International & Great Northern railroad, requested that the directors of the league select six views of Waco which were to be put on the playing cards to be sold throughout the territory of the agency. The views selected are the Amicable building, a day and a night view of the cotton palace, the McLennan county courthouse, the Riggins hotel and the Praetorian building.

Crate Dalton brought to the attention of the directors the matter of a roadbed, stating that in one day it would be possible to build a good road between Waco and Marlin. The subject was referred to the good roads committee.

Dr. Georgia made a motion that every director be required to carry two blank applications for membership, which was carried.

The committee on constitution and by-laws announced that it was ready to report, but a motion was carried that this report be deferred until a later meeting.

The meeting was then adjourned, and the members went into an informal discussion of the report of the committee on constitution and by-laws.

American Athletes
Not Professionals

New York, Sept. 2.—The talk of raising a British Olympic fund in order to provide "what is practically a team of gladiators" for the next Olympic games, has aroused Col. Robert M.
Thompson, president of the American Olympic committee, to write to the New York Times contradicting the assumption that America has done anything of this sort. He declares the American committee did not expend a penny in preparing competitors for any of the Olympic contests and does not propose to do so for the next game.

After detailing the method by which American athletes were selected for the last games, Colonel Thompson said:

"Until the team was finally selected, the Olympic committee had not spent penny upon the men. As soon as it was selected the committee took charge and with the subscriptions received from the public and, from the proceeds of tickets sold to travelers on the Finland, they paid all expenses of the team to and at Stockholm, and thence to New York."

INJUNCTION AGAINST POLICE PHILIP E. FAIRBANKS DIES

Judge Buck Orders Them to Withhold Pictures From the Rogues' Gallery.

Fort Worth, Sept. 2.—District Judge
Buck this morning issued a temporary restraining order against Police Chief Montgomery and Detective Chief Connelley prohibiting them from placing the photographs of Mrs. Dorothy Hein-cke in the rogues' gallery. The photographs, it is asserted, were taken by force when she was arrested on a swindling charge which her attorneys declare will be shown groundless.

In the injunction application the right of the police to "mug" for the rogue's gallery is questioned for the first time in Texas.

She was arrested recently on a charge of swindling, brought when she signed the name of her husband, Robert Heincke, to a small check.

District Judge Buck issued the temporary restraining order in accordance with the petition and set the hearing for 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

The petition sets out that the photographs were taken by force while she was under arrest, and expressed the belief that they are to be placed in the rogues' gallery and published in detective papers all over the United States.

FOR BETTER SCHOOLS IN THE LOCAL COURTS

CONFERENCE FOR EDUCATION ASKS CO-OPERATION IN PROGRESSIVE CAMPAIGNS.

Plan for Improved Country Facilities. Financial Support of State Institutions.

Austin, Sept. 2.—The executive committee of the governing board of the conference for education in Texas today gave out the following statement: "Mr. Lee Clark, who, for somewhat more than two years has rendered faithful service as general agent of the conference for education in Texas, has resigned and has accepted a position in the state department of education. The executive committee of the board has appointed Mr. E. E. Satterfield of Terrell to serve as acting general agent until the next meeting of the governing board, which will be held in Dallas on education day, November 1, of the Dallas State fair, at which time the annual meeting of the conference will be held. It is confidently believed that the school men and the friends of education will as heretofore, co-operate with the general agent of the conference in the promotion of a statewide all-the-year-round campaign for progressive education measures, among which are:

1. The establishment and adequate maintenance of efficient rural high schools for the farmers' children.
2. The extension and the improvement of professional, expert supervision of the country schools, in order that there may be guaranteed to the country children as good schools as are provided for the children of the town and city schools, which have reached a high state of efficiency because of vigorous and expert supervision.
3. The submission of a constitutional amendment by the next regular session of the legislature providing for the removal of the fifty-cent rate of local taxation for the maintenance of public schools in the six hundred independent school districts and the common school districts.
4. The submission of a constitutional amendment by the next regular session of the legislature substituting majority rule in the levy of local maintenance taxes for the public schools in the 114 cities of the state, in which the constitution now requires a two-thirds vote of the property tax-paying voters in order to levy a local tax for the maintenance of schools.
5. The adequate and dependable financial support by statutory enactment or by constitutional amendment if necessary, for all of the state institutions of higher education, including the four state normal schools, the Agricultural and Mechanical college, the College of Industrial Arts and the University of Texas.
6. The further development of enlightened public sentiment in favor of better school buildings, better teachers, longer terms, an increased enrollment and attendance of school children and more rational and effective school administration.

TWO CLAIMS FOR DAMAGES

T. A. Hale Falls in Storm Sewer. P. M. Jones Has Injured Horse.

Two claims for damages against the city were filed with the commission yesterday. One was for an alleged injury to a horse and the other for personal injuries. Attorneys representing T. A. Hale filed notice that their client expected damages for an injury claimed by him to have been received by reason of the negligence of the city. Hale fell through an opening in the storm sewer at Fifth and Franklin streets August 1st. It is claimed his arm, leg and side were injured. No amount was specified in the claim. P. M. Jones filed a claim for $150, alleging his horse was injured for the garbage piling. It is claimed by Jones that the animal was driven from the bank, falling into the river. Both claims were referred to the city attorney, and Commissioner Littlefield will also investigate the latter one.
